Tokoro in Kitami is active in curling, but used to have an old facility built in 1988.

November 15

“Restaurant Asperge,” a popular French restaurant in Biei, has decided to do business at a ski resort in Niseko only for winter. “Asperge Hanazono,” the new restaurant in Niseko, will open from December 20 to March 10 and provide 4,500-yen lunch and 15,000-yen dinner. November 18

The population of the Town of Higashikagura has reached 10,000 on November 18th as the result of the town’s efforts to attract younger people. The town has developed a residential estate in Hijirino area next to Asahikawa City and also has provided favorable supports to families raising children. Its population once dropped to 5,109 in 1975 due to increasing number of retiring farmers.

EVENTS IN ASAHIKAWA FOR DECEMBER

Hello Asahikawa!

Name: Wayne Yeh
Hometown: Taipei, Taiwan
Interviewed: November 23rd, 2013 by AIC

AIC: Why did you decide to come to Japan, well, especially to Asahikawa?

Wayne: I came to Japan because I wanted to learn the Japanese language, culture, and the way people think. I am also especially interested in how Japanese people do business. As for the reason that I came to Asahikawa, I just happened to have a connection here. I have a family friend who owns a company here, so I came and joined the company to learn the Japanese way of doing business.

AIC: Was Japan different from your expectation?

Wayne: Before I came, everything I knew about Japan was from Japanese drama and movies. I would say that such depictions were pretty close to the real life I have experienced here, but Japanese people sure don't eat sushi or ramen every day.

AIC: I guess you are right. Well, could you tell us a little about where you are from? Where did you grow up?

Wayne: I was born in Taipei, Taiwan and spent most of my childhood there until I immigrated to Canada when I was twelve years old. As many people know already, Taiwan is warm all the year round and the population density is pretty high. Meanwhile, Vancouver, where I lived in Canada, was a rainy city, but I really enjoyed its nice environment. There are lots of places to go for outdoor events, and I would say it is a great place for vacation as well. As for Toronto, where my university was located, it is the largest city and also the financial center of Canada. Funnily enough, the weather in Toronto is very similar to Hokkaido.

AIC: So you have lived in Canada for quite a long time. Do you go back to Taiwan often?

Wayne: Yes, I have been going back to Taiwan once every year or two since my family lives there. Since there is a direct flight to Taiwan from Asahikawa Airport, it is quite convenient to travel back and forth.

AIC: That is great. So you've been back to Taiwan a few times already. What kind of a Japanese souvenir is most well received from your friends and family?

Wayne: Well, all my family and friends love Japanese sweets, candies and cookies. But of course, girls like Japanese cosmetics.

AIC: Do you like to travel? Where have you been to in Asahikawa and in Hokkaido so far? I assume you've already been to Asahiyama Zoo? (laugh)

Hello Asahikawa!

Wayne Yeh Interview (Part Two) Continued from Page 4

Wayne: Absolutely! Asahiyama Zoo is one of the first places I went when I first arrived. Actually I have been to many cities in Hokkaido, mostly the ones up in the north of Asahikawa: Nayoro, Shibetsu, Kamikawa, Wakkanai, to name a few. But the place I enjoyed the most was Abashiri and Shiretoko area.

AIC: What place in Hokkaido would you recommend other foreigners to visit?

Wayne: Actually there are many places that I would love to recommend. Night view in Hakodate, flower viewing in Furano, great nature and hot spring in Sounkyo, and the World Heritage Site in Shiretoko are just a few things that cross my mind at the moment.

AIC: How do you like to spend your free time here? Is your typical weekend in Asahikawa significantly different from back home?

Wayne: No, it is actually not that different. On weekends I hang out at a friend's place, play some games, enjoy watching movies or eat together. But since I came to Asahikawa, I have been practicing cycling long distances. Once of my goals for next summer is to bike to Furano and back in one day.

AIC: That sounds like a fun and feasible plan. Is there anything else you would like to learn about or try while in Asahikawa?

Wayne: Yep, there is something that I would definitely want to try while I am here—skiing! I've heard from many that Asahikawa and its surrounding areas have great and affordable places for skiing. But we haven't had much snow this year yet, so I am just impatiently waiting at the moment.

AIC: I bet you miss Canada. What do you miss the most?

Wayne: I would say my friends back home. It is kind of hard to come to a foreign country alone, especially not being able to speak the language well. It was very difficult to make friends in the beginning.

AIC: Must have been challenging to start a new life here. Do you mind sharing us your plans for the future?

Wayne: No, not at all. At least for now, I am planning on staying in Asahikawa until next summer. Then I think I will try to look for other full-time jobs in some big cities in Japan.

AIC: Well, thank you very much for coming in today, Wayne. Wish you all the best on your future adventures.

Wayne: Thanks for having me.
